

Jenna's Chinese portrait

If she were a landscape, she would be a beach because she likes tropical climates.

If she were a brand, she would be Nike because she likes the slogan "Just do it".

If she were a French food, she would be French bread because she likes it a lot and the bread in the US is not good.

Cyrielle, Leo and Eva, 3e7

---

If she were a flower, she would be hibiscus because her mom plants hibiscus in the house.

If she were a zodiac sign, she would be Pisces because she was born in March.

If she were an animal, she would be a lion because she likes that and it's her last name!

If she were a monument, she would be the Library of Congress because it's a beautiful building and she loves reading.

If she were a country, she would be the United States because it's her home.

If she were a social network, she would be Reddit because it's useful for information.

Robin, 3e7

---

If she were a season, she would be summer because she loves hot and this is her favourite season.

If she were a food, she would be ice-cream because she loves eating.

If she were a drink, she would be hot chocolate she likes it.

If she were a day, she would be Sunday because Sunday is a quiet day.

Shirel, 3e7

---

If she were a number, she would be seven because she thinks seven is her lucky number.

If she were an object, she would be a light-bulb because she likes to see.

If she were an activity, she would be working because she loves working in Paris.

Esteban, 3e7

---

If she were a sport, she would be tennis because it's her favourite sport.

If she were a colour, she would be lavender because it's her favourite colour.

If she were a city, she would be Los Angeles because she likes the weather there and she enjoys visiting the city.

Nathan C., 3e7